

Steve Ellis
Vice President for Programs, Taxpayers for Common Sense

Mr. Ellis is Vice President of programs at Taxpayers for Common Sense (TCS), where he has worked since 1999. Mr. Ellis oversees programs and serves as a leading media and legislative spokesperson for TCS. A persistent critic of the mounting budget deficit and federal fiscal policy, Mr. Ellis has testified before numerous Congressional Committees and has appeared on national network news programs, including programs on CBS, NBC, ABC, Fox, CNN and NPR.

Mr. Ellis formerly served as an officer in the Coast Guard for six years and received a B.S. in Government from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.
